

HUSTONVILLE.

Nearly every member of George W. Riffe's family was down with the grip early last week. The epidemic has been about as sweeping here this winter as it was last.

The vestibuled trains on the C. & C. are a thing of joy, but that legislator who proposes to have separate cars for the colored brother is reaching out after a greatly needed reform.

Whilst lately at Nicholasville we were not surprised to learn that our little musician, Miss Dollie Williams, is a universal favorite, whose permanent location at that point depends only on her decision.

California has recently made an importation of bugs from Australia and New Zealand, estimated to be worth $66,666.66 each. These valuable insects are new to the State and their estimated value grows out of the protection they will give the various fruit crops by destruction of the many insect pests which have proved so destructive.

At Georgetown we met the genial Capt. J. W. Browning, formerly of Stanford, whilst connected with the Knoxville Branch. Capt. B. now runs a train on the 3d division, of the Louisville Southern from Georgetown to Versailles and back. Georgetown is well up in city features, having water works, electric lights, a telephone system and street railway. At the time we were there she even had a big sensation, one married fellow of some prominence having skipped with another fellow's wife.

It appears that we can't escape a war. No sooner is the Chilian muddle cleared up without a brush than war again breaks out on a Kansas border and "pandemonium reigns." As that difficulty is likely to be settled soon, the pugnacious may exult in prospects of an early declaration of a war of extermination against the English sparrow. The little pests have become nearly a national curse and the general sentiment is favorable to a vigorous charge on the enemy all along the line. "Let that war go bravely on."

We read that horse racing is becoming rather unsavory amusement since a lot of English sharks wearing titles conspired with the jockeys to pull nearly every favorite and succeeded in robbing the know-nothings of immense fortunes before they tumbled and the bucket shops were so successfully "touched" in several western cities by the conspirators getting control of the pool rooms' wire and reporting short horses winning on which their confederates had taken all bets they could get at long odds. St. Louis is again rolling up her sleeves and spitting on her hands for another bout with Churchill Downs and Latonia and the air is filled with discordant music. Without a compromise and better guarantees to lambs who flock to the shearing pens, agricultural associations and kite shaped tracks will soon offer about all the racing on which the 'most reckless will hazard his money.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

The street lamps are again being lighted.

C. A. Moses and H. P. Brown, Sr., have opened up a grocery store in Mrs. Lucy Williams' building.

The display of embroidery before the court-house square has been magnificent the past few days.

The town board has made an order to have saw-dust placed on the various street crossings. The mud is simply awful.

John Reynolds, formerly of Fletcher, and who married a Miss McFriedge about three miles east of London, died Sunday morning of consumption.

Frank Blankenship brought his catamount in Saturday that he had killed on Sinking Creek. Dr. Melcon will stuff and put it with his collection.

Town Marshal Dick Harbin, published a notice that he would enforce the hog law commencing on last Monday. I noticed three on Main street Sunday.

Mr. Gillon, of Pike county, Ill., was here this week after an absence of 44 years. All the old citizens whom he mentioned having known are now dead. He was the first Master of the McKee Lodge of the Masonic order and of course one of the charter members.

Supervisors of tax got through Tuesday and raised the valuation of real estate and personal property $12,669. Also took a number of lists that had been missed by the assessor amounting to $3,351. They were engaged in the work nine days and the following are the parties who did it: D. R. Brock, W. J. Lytton, G. E. Poynter, Fred Johnson and J. N. Stanberry.

The following parties were elected by the stockholders last week to run the First National Bank: Directors, V. Boring, R. M. Jackson, W. A. Pugh, C. D. Anderson, J. W. Bastin, E. Bowling, J. V. Elliott, Joseph Sampson and R. C. Ford; Judge Boring, Pres.; R. M. Jackson, Vice Pres.; R. C. Ford, Cashier. W. H. Carrier and Dan Brown are retained as clerks. The bank has done a splendid business during the past year.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

The town clock has been frozen up for several days and has not been running.

J. C. Gordon, principal of Garrard College, has been quite sick for several days, but is improving.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will give an entertainment and supper at the Mason House on the evening of Feb. 13th.

Senator John B. Gordon, of Georgia, is opposed to the appropriation of $200,000,000 for our coast defenses and says that we have more reason to fear financial disaster than any foreign foe.

A. H. Rice will leave to-day for Paducah, where he has accepted a good position. Ethel Scott, of Somerset, was here a few days ago. Sam Joseph, of Cincinnati, was in Lancaster Saturday and Sunday. He is still traveling for a Cincinnati boot and shoe house. W. R. Jennings, of Paint Lick, was here Sunday. Capt. T. W. Olds is down with the grip. Mr. John B. Brewer was in town a few days last week.

As between Sir Edmund Arnold, the English author, and Mrs. Belle Wilson Stapp, the accomplished Buckeye poetess and correspondent, we take pleasure in casting our vote for the latter as the one who should write the opening poem for the Columbian Exposition. The poem ought to be written by an American and we would be willing to bet our bottom dollar on the Kentucky poetess, if she should be assigned to that important duty. Everything she writes is both graceful and entertaining and her modesty only renders the productions of her gifted pen the more meritorious.

"Don't try to make a duck scratch or a hen swim" is good advice to those who expect to find an old head on young shoulders or even old heads on old shoulders without an occasional exception. The great apostle put away childish things when he became a man, but he frankly admitted that when he was a child he thought and spoke as a child. It is as natural for a boy to have his fun as it is for a pet coon to prowl around the premises and poke his nose into every dish he can find. An occasional run on his head may bring him to his senses for a while, but he soon relapses into his mischievous habits and goes on in the same old way. Time alone will change the current of his ways and it is therefore wise to be lenient in discipline as well as circumspect in counsel in dealing with his indiscretions.

Gen. Coons, of California, has telegraphed the president for authority to raise a brigade for the prospective war with Chili. He claims to have been a soldier in the late war, but on which side is not known. This is immaterial, however, as he was doubtless never treed by those against whom he fought and would not have come down, if a rifle had been pointed at him by the veritable Captain Scott, of coon hunting fame. Possibly if the general had put in a small portion of his time in familiarizing himself with the constitution of the United States he would have learned that the power to declare war is not vested in the president, and that until war has been declared that the raising of troops is somewhat premature. If, however, the general, who seems not to have been content with the laurels he has heretofore won, insists upon raising his brigade, the Chilian minister ought to promptly notify his government, so that they could have the dogs of war prepared to go on a "Coon" hunt as soon as the valiant warrior with his coons touched the inhospitable shores of Chili.

The increased excitement over the Chili imbroglio, is caused by the reported testimony of the sailors of the Baltimore, who were involved in the riotous proceedings that brought about the troubles between that country and the United States. Those whose voices are still for war, accept the statements of those who participated in the riot as being true beyond all peradventure and do not seem to realize the fact that they are deeply interested in clearing their own skirts of any blame in the matter. It is not within the limit of human probability that if they had behaved imprudently and thus provoked a difficulty they would be willing to admit it, especially after having been the cause of so much trouble and talk. To say the least of it, if these men of war are permitted to testify in their own behalf, the Chilians, by all the usages of civilized society, should be allowed to state their side of the case, and proper consideration given to the entire testimony before going to extremities either one way or the other. Summer soldiers and sunshine patriots are usually those who are most vociferous in urging a resort to arms, but when the tug of war comes, content themselves with lurking in the rear and keeping up a show of courage by saying "Go on boys, I'll look after things at home while you are away." It is amusing to notice the bluster and brag of those who are clamorous for war with a little republic over a very questionable affair and the airs they assume when boasting of our ability to crush the life out of a nation that has a population of only two or three millions to cope with one of 66 millions. There are doubtless reasons for this war clamor that have not yet appeared upon the surface.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kelley, of Junction City, lost by death last week their little son, Randolph Morrison, aged three years.

Post master T. J. Ballard, of Lawrenceburg, lost the last of his two children on the 14th. Within five months he has lost his wife and entire family.

Mrs. Sallie Waddle, grand mother of O. H. Waddle, Esq., died at Somerset, aged 97. The Reporter says she was born in Garrard and was a devoted and happy christian. She retained her mental and bodily activity to the last. Her descendants number 160 souls.

Prince Albert Victor, the eldest son of the Prince of Wales and heir apparent to the throne of Great Britain, died Friday in his 28th year. He was engaged to his cousin, Princess Mary Victoria, of Teck, to whom he was to have been married next month, and she is described as being inconsolable.

Walter A. Wood, the well known inventor and manufacturer of harvesting machines, is dead. He was one of the few Americans, who, for the great services rendered to humanity as an inventor, have received titles and honors from the crowned of Europe. He was a representative in Congress for two terms.

Mrs. Polly Young, relict of John Young, deceased, died yesterday morning of pneumonia and bronchitis at her home in Highland, aged 73 years. She had been a member of the Baptist church for years and was known and loved in her vicinity for her kind deeds. She will be buried at the family burying ground at 11 o'clock to-day.

Col. Wm. Watkins Danlap, of Idaho Springs, Col., a brother of Dr. Fayette Danlap, of Danville, died suddenly Friday. He was a graduate of West Point, but cast his lot with the Confederacy in 1861 and was made a colonel before he was 24. After the war he went abroad and was for several years an officer in the Khedive's army in Egypt. Since his return to America he has been a mining engineer. The remains will be brought to Danville for interment.

Mrs. James B. Green died at her home near McKinney Thursday evening of child birth, together with a severe case of grip. Mrs. Green was a loving wife and mother, and besides her husband she leaves five children, who will feel for years their irreparable loss. Early in life Mrs. Green, who was Miss Mary Lizzie Goode, connected herself with the Christian church and had since been a most consistent member. Her remains were laid to rest Friday afternoon in the Hustonville cemetery, after funeral services by Elders W. L. Williams and W. A. Gibson at the Christian church at that place.

Miss Lizzie Porter, the amiable and beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Porter, passed away Friday night, a victim of that relentless disease, consumption. A devoted member of the Christian church for years, she was fully prepared and ready for the summons which would transfer her from a world of sickness, sorrow and death to a blessed home where tears are unknown and where at the right hand of the Father she will sing His praises forevermore. It seems sad and cruel to her loved ones that she should have been cut down just as she was entering the threshold of a promising womanhood, but He knoweth best, and her mother and father are enabled by christian faith to murmur not, though their hearts bleed with sorrow. The body was interred in the family burying ground at Wm. Logan's Sunday morning at 10 in the presence of many sympathizing friends.

January is half gone, yet but four times since the first day of the month and year has the mercury here got above the freezing point. Yesterday the minimum was 4 above zero, the lowest point reached during the past five years. The weather bureau estimates that the coming rise in the Ohio will reach a maximum of 23 feet at Louisville on next Wednesday. This is two feet below the danger line, but it is based upon the amount of water now in sight.—Times.

The National Woman Suffrage Association intends to devote special attention to missionary work in behalf of female suffrage in the Southern States. It will throw swine among pearls. The Southern women are women.—Courier-Journal.

Alliance members of the Mississippi Legislature concede the reelection of Senators George and Walthall, against whom all the strength of the alliance was exerted in the election for the Legislature.

Fred Pfeiffer has agreed to play with the Louisville base ball club next season. He will be paid $1,000 bonus and $5,000 salary to play second base and act as captain of the team.

The C. & O. railroad company has decided to issue $13,000,000 of common stock for the purpose of betterment and extension.

GRAB ORCHARD.

The sick are all convalescent as far as we can learn.

The Springs property was considerably damaged by the sleet breaking down so many pretty trees.

You made our operator's name at this place read W. L. Pettus, when it should have been W. L. Bettis.

A number of young folks enjoyed a candy party at the residence of Capt. F. W. Dillon a few nights since and were nicely entertained by his fair daughter, Miss Lottie.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Redd, Jr., will on Jan. 25th celebrate the 10th anniversary of their wedding in grand style and as we are to be among the guests, can give a better description after having attended.

Mr. Otis Newland went out to the house of George Dollins, who is wanted in Stanford, to arrest him, but was met with a gun in the hands of Dollins. He came back to town, summoned a posse and went back to find his man had skipped. Dollins is a bad negro.

It is rumored that the Springs are to be sold to a syndicate, who contemplate turning them into an inebriate asylum. With our four saloons now open and a host of nice young boys to start on, I think we could soon fill one with patients without going out of the county. What a shame!

Several of our young gentlemen think of entering business at Corbin, among them the noted Dr. Moore, who thinks of hanging out his shingle and dosing out bread bills to the community. He says he hopes, however, most of his patients will be young ladies, as he is good on heart disease.

Mrs. M. A. Ross came home from Guthrie Oklahoma, Sunday, having enjoyed a visit to her daughter out there; says she is much pleased with the climate and country. Miss Kincaid, of Missouri, is visiting her uncle, Mr. Monroe Curtis. Our young men pronounce her quite pretty, and they are good judges.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

Cardinal Manning, the head of the Catholic church in England, aged 86, and Cardinal Simeoni, of Italy, died Friday.

Rev. George O. Barnes and family have arrived at New Orleans, but will remain with Rev. W. C. Barnes till spring.

Rev. W. A. Gibson, brother of our John Bell Gibson, will become one of the faculty of Hustonville Christian College Feb. 1.

Rev. H. W. Elliott, evangelist for State missions, will preach at the Christian church next Sunday morning and night.

Elder Joseph Ballou will preach at Antioch, Madison county, on the 2d, and at McCormack's on the 1st and 3d Sundays this year. He has no engagement for the 4th, but will preach next Sunday at McCormack's.

The new pastor of the Christian church, Rev. W. E. Ellis, is creating a most favorable impression on his congregation and the people generally. He has a fine delivery, what he says furnishes much food for reflection and he stops when he gets through. He and his handsome bride have been warmly received and they will doubtless soon feel at home among us.

Beginning with yesterday the union revival meetings will be held at the Presbyterian church. Rev. W. E. Arnold, at whose church they have been held, is in earnest in his warfare against the devil and for the saving of souls, and will continue to contribute his full quota to the work. It is good and pleasant to see brethren dwell together in unity, and these meetings have done much to convince the worldly man that there is real and true christian love, which seeks more for the ingathering of sinners than the mere increase of individual church membership. So far eight persons have professed religion.

BARBOURVILLE, KNOX COUNTY.

Most of the prisoners who broke jail last Friday night a week ago have been recaptured.

Hon. Carlo Lyttle, the distinguished attorney from Manchester, is here at the residence of H. L. Hutton, his brother-in-law, sick with the grip.

We had quite a tide here in Cumberland river the first and middle of the week and old Cumberland was "fuller" than she has been known for years.

A half dozen prospective candidates for judge and a number of their enthusiastic friends are exercising themselves considerably over the number and just what counties will be thrown into this judicial district.

One of the hottest fights that has ever been known in this district is looked for in the old 11th for Congress this fall. I could name nearly a dozen men who will seek the honors and more than one will "bob up" from some of the counties. Also there will be a considerable tussle over the election of delegates from this district to the national republican convention at Minneapolis this fall.

W. P. WALTON.

ALTHOUGH he helped to make the crazy quilt concern, which by a majority of 138,000 the people of Kentucky accepted as the fundamental law of the State, Attorney General Hendrick is doing his full part to aid those who want to get around its provisions and of a consequence bring the new constitution into disrepute. The auditor would not certify to the warrants for the pay of the four extra pages that the Legislature has employed in violation of the inhibition of Sec. 243. To be sure they are called messengers, to get around the provision, and the point seems to have been well made, since it is the opinion of the learned attorney general that while the number of pages and other officers of the body is specifically limited, the section does not prohibit the Legislature from creating new offices. Besides he coincides with the opinion that the constitution-makers had no right to limit the power of the General Assembly in the matter. He therefore tells the auditor that the warrants of either House are sufficient vouchers for him to order the treasurer to pay for the services of the messengers, and away goes another of the wonderful measures of retrenchment and reform with which constitution-makers pulled the wool over the eyes of the people.

AFTER enumerating the richness of democratic timber for the presidency in the various sections of the Union, the New York Herald makes this suggestion, which will strike a responsive chord in many breasts: We have reserved to the last one name whose owner has the esteem, confidence and admiration alike of North and South, East and West—Henry Watterson, of Kentucky. In our belief, Mr. Watterson would be the most universally popular candidate who could be named by the democrats. To nominate him would conciliate the opposition of thousands of republican voters. He would secure, beyond a doubt, the whole Cleveland vote and the whole independent vote. His name would disarm any violent opposition. His election would please, even delight, a multitude of prominent republicans. Why not Watterson?

THE fourth-class postmasters met in convention at Washington and agreed on a bill to be presented to Congress for an increase of the pay of their offices. It allows 100 per cent. yearly compensation on the first $100 in cancellations per quarter; on the next $100 or less per quarter, 60 per cent.; on the next $200 or less per quarter 40 per cent., and on all the balance 40 per cent. in addition to the maximum of $150. Clerk hire is provided for at the rate of from $10 to $300 a year. If the ratio of improvement in the service shall equal the ratio of increase of compensation, the country will not object to having these officers obtain what they ask.

THE London Echo is so surprised at a democratic paper complimenting a republican that it stands aghast and asks if we really meant what we said about Col. Silas Adams sufficiently to repeat it, should he be the candidate for Congress in the 11th this fall. Lord bless you, yes. He was our favorite before and we are for him still over any man you can name. We have known Col. Adams for a number of years and never heard aught of him save in his praise. If the Echo had a few more of such men in its party it wouldn't be so far below par in old Kentucky.

COMMENTING on Gov. Brown's determination to interfere as little as possible in the verdicts of the courts, the Courier-Journal says: "When this is accepted as a fact, when it is known that the governor holds that his paramount duty is to see that the laws are executed, the dangerous classes of the State will see the necessity of putting greater restraints on their passions. Gov. Brown has, by his firmness and determination, given to the verdicts of the courts a new meaning and in this course he will receive the hearty support of all law-abiding people."

SENATOR HUFF is seeking to knock another hole into the much abused new constitution by presenting a resolution that that the inhibition against accepting passes from railroads does not apply to this legislature. He not only wants passes, but wants them so badly that he asks that the railroads be required to give them. Senator Huff would take a backward step in reform.

GEN. BRISBIN, Burbridge's chief of staff, has gone to the lake of fire prepared for the whole kit that desecrated Kentucky and cut such fantastic tricks under cover of war as made the angels weep.

—The Bellevue Hotel, Middlesboro, has closed and most of the others would if they could.

THERE are not many men who are in condition to put away such a crown as the one offered Judge Wm. Lindsay. He has declined to accept the appointment of Inter-State Commerce Commissioner, giving as a reason that he can not afford to do so, although the salary is $7,500 and expenses paid. Judge Lindsay's law practice is very large, besides he does not want to leave the people who hold him in such high esteem and who are ever ready to honor him. We expect to see him U. S. Senator before many years.

A WASHINGTON dispatch says that the House of Representatives of the 52d Congress has declared its emphatic hostility to subsidies, bounties and land grants, and pronounced in favor of rigid retrenchment in the appropriations of the government, by the adoption of the Holman resolution. Now let its acts correspond with its promises and the people will have no reason to regret that they rose in their might and practically wiped out the republican representation in Congress.

THE Courier-Journal in the newspaper struggle is much like the horse Eclipse in the equine race. It is easily first in the South and Southwest with the rest hardly anywhere. Last week the daily sent out 72 pages of eight columns, which contained 454 columns of reading and 122 of advertisements, a record that would be hard to be excelled anywhere. Great is the Courier-Journal and greater does it grow all the time.

JOHN SHERMAN announces that his political ambition is now satisfied and that he will retire from public life after the expiration of his senatorial term in 1899. As he was born in 1823 and will only be 70, it's dollars to cents that he will change his mind if he lives and retains his health. After a man gets into the swim of public life he rarely leaves it till he drowns or is retired by his constituency.

PRESIDENT HARRISON does not seem to be losing any sleep o' nights over that miserable gerrymander the republicans of Ohio are preparing to perpetrate. The first thing the little man with the big hat knows he will be accused of being a meanly partisan, too pronounced to be president of this republic.

NEWSY NOTES.

—Chief Justice Ruger, of New York, is dead.

—John L. Sullivan has sworn off and now wears a Murphy badge.

—George S. Knight, the noted character actor, died at Philadelphia.

—Palestine P. Ballard has been appointed storekeeper in this district.

—Of the $140,000,000 in fire losses in 1891, Kentucky is charged with $3,181,000.

—Coroner Bronaugh holds the Monon blameless for the wreck near Crawfordsville.

—Senator Vest has introduced a bill to appropriate $11,000,000 for the improvement of the lower Mississippi.

—The Waterbury Brass Works, at Waterbury, Mass., were destroyed by fire. Loss $200,000; insurance $187,000.

—Gen. Alger expresses the opinion that only Mr. Blaine's "patriotism" would induce him to accept the nomination for president.

—The Court of Appeals has reversed the case of Logan Murphy, sentenced to death for the murder of his father in Magoffin county, on the grounds of insanity.

—Part of Rome, Ga., is under water and many people have been forced to leave their homes. Trestles have been washed away and railroad travel is interrupted.

—England is excited over the attempt of Rev. Mr. Goodall to outrage Mrs. Siddals in a compartment car. The preacher is under arrest and will likely do penitence.

—Ex-Speaker Reed's method of counting a quorum was resorted to by the republicans in the Iowa Legislature to secure the organization of the House in their favor.

—The space devoted to the Chicago World's Fair is 600 acres. Philadelphia had 236 and Paris 143. The buildings will cover 130 acres and the cost of the equipment will be $14,900,000.

—The local option law has proven a failure in Harlan. This town has not been dry 24 hours at any time since it has been under the local option law.—Harlan County Bulletin.

—Joseph H. Coates & Co., one of the largest cotton commission firms in Philadelphia, with three branch houses in the South, assigned on account of the demoralization of the cotton trade.

—The prohibitionists have fixed June 1 and 2 for their State convention, but have not decided on the place, but it will be held at Louisville, Lexington, Georgetown or Elizabethtown.

—John B. Wickham, who moved to Iowa from Virginia, died the other day. He claimed to be 120 years old and of course attended Washington's inauguration and knew that gentleman well.

—A Chicago street car was demolished at a crossing by a "limited" train of the Chicago, Pittsburg and Fort Wayne railroad. Two women passengers on the street car were killed and 13 persons injured.

—R. Knight, who swindled the citizens of Middlesboro out of considerable sums of money with a building and loan association, was held in $1,500 bail, which he couldn't give and is now in the Pineville jail.

—Kansas City suffered a $150,000 fire in the business centre on Main street.

—Ex-President Cleveland has gone to Louisiana for a week of hunting and fishing on Joseph Jefferson's plantation.

—W. J. Sauer and Patrick Kuhlman attempted to cross the river at Carrollton, Saturday night, in a ferry barge, and neither has been seen since.

—One of the most determined suicides reported lately is that of a woman in Chicago, who removed her clothing and deliberately lay on the ice of the lake until she froze to death.

—At Oxford, O., Henry Corbin, a negro, was hanged by a mob for the murder of Mrs. Gergetta Horner. When he was surrounded he shot himself in the head and was unconscious when he was hung.

—Grand Chief Ramsey, of the order of Railway Telegraphers, is quoted as declaring that if the East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia continues its warfare on its operators he will block the entire road.

—In a wreck on the Northern Pacific near Jonesville, Minn., the sleeping car in which were the members of the Andrews Opera Co., was burned. Two of the women lost their lives and a number of the others were injured.

—The hanging of Jesse Brown at Paducah for the murder of another negro, who he thought had supplanted him in his girl's affections, was neatly and artistically done. The neck was broken and death resulted in 10 minutes.

—The House has settled the question of committee clerkships on the old plan. Chairmen of committees get clerks as usual. It was of rather unusual interest this year on account of the position taken by Mr. Dickerson, of Kentucky.

—Reports of Dun's Agency show that exports in December were the heaviest ever known. Exports of flour increased 50 per cent., while the net increase in the other chief items makes the gain about 25 per cent. The aggregate exports for the month will exceed $116,000,000.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

—Mr. Edmiston has presented the bill authorizing Lincoln county to issue bonds to the extent of $10,000.

—With the infamy and disqualification features cut out the Goebel lottery bill passed the Senate. There are very severe penalties attached and if it becomes a law the octopus will have to go.

—Mr. Shearer of Wayne has presented a bill to prohibit the selling, loaning, giving or furnishing spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or any other intoxicating drinks on election days in his commonwealth.

—The page question has at last been settled and the House, which contended to the constitution, will have seven, instead of the three prescribed. It is mighty easy to get around the constitution when you want to.

—Senator Parker, of Laurel, made a strong speech against the lottery octopus, in which he said it was a disgrace to the State, and that in the interest of society, religion and morals it should be wiped out root and branch.

—The Revisory Commission makes the issue of free railroad passes to public officials a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of $500 to $1,000. The known acceptance of such passes or reduced rates is made cause to declare the official's place vacant.

—The Paducah News makes use of the word "difluviating." We do not know what it means and therefore more its reference to the judiciary committee, in order that its constitutionality may be tested before we begin using it.—Frankfort Capital.

—The revisory committee has submitted the changes in the judicial districts as they would make them. Lincoln is put in the 14th with Mercer, Boyle, Garrard and Casey, with a voting population of 66,930. We have no especial objection to Mercer, but we would suggest Rockcastle in the place of Mercer, because we are more intimately connected and associated with her. Our old neighbors of Pulaski, Wayne and Russell are put with Clinton and Cumberland in the 15th district, while Rockcastle goes with Madison, Jackson, Owsley and Estill in the 17th. Laurel, Whitley, Knox and Clay form the 16th district.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—Francis Jones bought of F. M. Ware a lot of butcher cattle at 2c.

—A. T. Nunnally bought of B. D. Holtzclaw nine head of 2-year-old heifers and steers at 2 cents.

—D. C. Terhune and L. N. Schriver bought 24 fine yearling mules of S. M. Dunn, of Garrard, at $90.

DAVID M. ANDERSON, Admr.

H. T. BUSH,

REAL ESTATE AGENT,

Stanford, Ky.

I have quite a number of FARMS for sale of the very best Blue-Grass Land in Lincoln county.

These Farms are all well improved and good rich lands, ranging in size from 20 to 200 Acres. Some of the localities are: near Richwood and fertility of soil, the convenience of turnpikes and railroads that bring markets right to our door, they are cheaper than any other place in the county in the State.

There is scarcely a Farm in the county over 5 miles from a depot.

The county is crisscrossed with turnpikes running in every direction. There is not a public road entering the county seat that is not Macadamized.

We have the Knoxville Branch of the L. & N. R. R. running from East to West and the C. & O. R. R. from North to South; the K. C. R. R. from this place to Cincinnati, crossing the C. & O. at Winchester, giving full access to the markets of the whole world. Besides, we have three large Flour Mills in the county that give us a market for all our grain right at home; and the development of the mountain regions of Eastern and Southern Kentucky by railroads and the outlet South by railroads has created such a demand for all kinds of cereals and provisions that we can scarcely retain enough for home consumption.

The people are prosperous, generous and kind, believing in Christianity and education. There is not a neighborhood in the county but has a good church and school-house.

Stanford, the county seat of Lincoln, is a prosperous little city of about 2,000 inhabitants and is the great roadway from the North and Northeast and from the Northwest to Southeast, and standing as it does gazing right into the bosom of the developed mountains of Southeastern Kentucky backed up by the whole Blue-Grass region of the State with railroads running through it to all points of the compass, makes it naturally one of the best local towns in the South for manufactures and other enterprises of magnitude.

Water Works are now being agitated and right about the town about three-fourths of a mile there could be erected Water Works with very little cost that would supply a city of 150,000 inhabitants with the purest and best water in the world. Our little city has been newly rebuilt in the last few years and its business houses and residences will compare with larger cities of greater pretensions. Our merchants and tradesmen are all prosperous and doing well. We have two banks with a capital stock of $500,000 that are prosperous and in a good condition.

We have splendid schools. We have a Female College, a large brick building, with over 100 pupils in attendance and under the principality of Prof. J. M. Hubbard, is in a flourishing condition. We also have a Seminary that is a good school, with Prof. F. F. Blakeman at its head. We have one of the best Public School buildings in this section of the State, with over 100 pupils in attendance, and with other good private schools, you see our school facilities are excellent.

We have elegant church buildings, representing every denomination, with a full corps of ministers of fine class talent and are doing a better business than any class of men in the city.

I have tried to make this statement as facts, without any exaggeration or coloring, as those who know will bear me out, and those who wish to buy pleasant homes at fair prices and locate among a good people with all the best surroundings would do well to call and see me before purchasing elsewhere.

PERSONAL POINTS.

MR. B. K. WEAREN is down with the grip.
LEE COFFEY, of Monticello, was here Saturday.
Mrs. J. P. Davis is visiting friends at Williamsburg.

SAM MENYER is convalescing from a two weeks' illness.

MR. R. H. HARP, of Lexington, is clerking for B. F. Jones, Sr.

C. C. BREWER has joined the grip majority and is quite sick.

MISS ANNIE ALCOCK is slowly recovering from a severe case of grip.

Mrs. ROBERT MCALISTER, of Jessamine, is the guest of her friends here.

MESSRS. A. URBANSKY and M. Salinger are here helping the boys in the Louisville Store.

MR. AND MRS. A. C. DUNN have returned from a month's visit to Blue Springs, Mo.

MISS ELIZA NEWELL, of Wayne county, is the guest of Misses Annie and Lizzy Menefee.

DR. DAVID LOGAN continues very ill and only a few close friends are admitted to his bedroom.

MISS SALLIE FLORA returned Saturday from a visit to her sister at Campbellsville.

A MESSENGER from Hustonville yesterday stated that Mrs. J. M. Cooke was much worse.

MISS MANNIE ALFORD, who has been in the millinery business at Ansonia, Ala., is back home for a few weeks.

CLARENCE TATE arrived yesterday from Philadelphia to be present at the marriage of his sister, Miss Lucy Tate.

MR. JOHN A. McROBERTS is down from Corbin to attend his uncle, Mr. John McRoberts, Sr., who continues very ill.

MR. WM. MORELAND and family, of Boyle, will shortly move to this place. Stanford is always proud of such acquisitions.

MR. W. M. BRIGHT has been recommended a notary public and is at the old stand ready to serve the public as formerly.

JUDGE J. W. ALCOCK occupied the bench in the Common Pleas Court Monday and Tuesday in the absence of Judge Tinsley.—Pineville Messenger.

DR. S. C. HELM, of San Francisco, arrived Sunday. It was a sad homecoming, to find the dear mother that he left a few months ago gone from her accustomed place forever.

MISS ALICE DUNN, of the Garrard College faculty, passed up to Brodhead Sunday to consult Dr. L. S. Burdett about her eyes, which have been giving her much trouble recently.

MR. A. A. LEWIS has resigned the position of general storekeeper to accept that of gauger and has been assigned to one of the big distilleries in Anderson county. The pay is $5 a day.—Somerset Republican.

MR. LEWIS D. SAMPSON, our valued Barbourville correspondent, passed here Friday. It is more than probable that he will resume charge of the News at that place, which he formerly edited with much credit and ability.

Mrs. BUNDA LEAR and Mr. J. J. Moberly, of Kansas, arrived on a visit to their relatives here, and yesterday they were joined by Mr. W. A. Moberly, of Tennessee, making the family reunion complete, save by the absence of one.

Mrs. N. B. McKINNEY, of Stanford, is visiting the family of Mr. Thomas Phelps at Dreaming Creek Heights. Her son, Mr. Nathaniel McKinney, is attending Central University. Mr. G. D. Weatherford, Jr., leaves today to attend his father at Hustonville, who is quite ill. Friends of "Uncle George" wish him a safe and speedy recovery.—Richmond Register.

DR. S. G. HOCKER and Dr. J. W. Van-Arsdale have swapped positions in the New Roller Mills. The former will be secretary and the latter will go on the road.

MR. J. W. HAYDEN's family was increased to three a few days ago, when a 12 1/2 pound boy arrived. He has been named Ellis Basil and he and Mrs. Hayden are getting along finely.

A DRAFT of $2,000 from the Mutual Life Insurance of Kentucky has already been received by Mrs. B. F. Engleman. Mr. J. H. Baughman tells us that it was forwarded in less than a week after proof of death.

THE Bell County Coke and Improvement Company held a meeting here and elected officers and directors for the ensuing year. The following directors were chosen: Vincent Boring, W. G. Welch, J. B. Gilkerson, J. T. Ritchey, C. W. Short and J. B. McCreary.—Messenger.

A DANVILLE correspondent says that Senator R. J. Breckinridge has announced that he will be a candidate for Circuit Judge in the new judicial district and that Capt. Phil Thompson is also a candidate. We do not speak by authority, only as one of the scribes, but we would advise all candidates and others to count Judge M. C. Saulley in any calculations they may make. We believe he will be a candidate and if he does enter the field he will be a formidable one.

BLIND TOM will be with us to-morrow, Wednesday, night. He has just filled a week's engagement in Louisville, where he was very highly praised by the press. The Courier-Journal devoted a column to him and exploded the stories about the "Original Tom" having been killed in the Johnstown disaster, or was in an insane asylum. There could never exist two Blind Toms and there is no shadow of a doubt about the one who will astonish and amuse our theatre goers on the 20th being the only and original Blind Tom.

HIGGINS, Somerset's ex-mayor, is still in jail at Danville. County Judge Denton came up to see about the case, followed by Deputy Collector F. V. Logan, who wanted to thwart any attempt to bail him out. Higgins was served with a warrant charging him with grand larceny. Logan, who is Miss Woods' brother-in-law, has collected much damaging evidence against him and will prosecute Higgins to the bitter end. The Somerset papers, after thorough investigation, think that he is guilty, both of the rape and the robbery of the poor girl.

THANKS.—Rev. Ben Helm, in his sermon Sunday, said that a Christian does not have to shut himself up from all worldly enjoyments; that there are many innocent amusements that they might attend and named the entertainment to be given by Blind Tom at the Opera House to-morrow night as one of them. This negro has been truly described as the 8th wonder of the world. Blind, with little mind and no knowledge of music, except what God has given him, he is enabled to play the most difficult pieces and perform other remarkable feats of imitation. To see and hear him will be a privilege that in all human probability will not be given in a Stanford audience again.

ADAM FELLOWS.—Most of our young people will remember pretty little Adam Fellows, of Springfield, Mo., who visited here several years ago. She was married afterwards but her husband didn't live long and recently she adopted the stage either for a livelihood or to gratify a long cherished desire. She joined a comic opera company and in "Ship Ahoy" was just too killing for anything in blue tights. She was captain of the horse marines and danced, drilled and sung in a way to capture the hearts of all the dudes. It seems also that she captivated the manager of the company, Mr. Berry, and he became dead mashed on her. A few nights ago, says the New York Herald, the wife of the manager caught Miss Fellows and her husband in a room together and being refused admittance she forced the door in. The man was in bed, but Miss Fellows was dressed and persisted in insisting to the wife that a little business transaction alone had brought them together. Mrs. Berry refused to swallow this story and proceeded to slap Miss Fellows' face with much vengeance. Berry tried to take her part and he too protested that there was nothing wrong and that their actions had been basely misunderstood. He says he will get a divorce and marry the girl, but she says she is not on the marry unless she can improve her condition considerably more financially.

MR. AND MRS. WILL HAYS gave a party to their many young friends last night.

R. ZIMMER is better prepared than ever to serve oysters. Fried, stewed, scolloped and raw at any hour.

My bar is open at all hours day and night and the public is cordially invited to call. Geo. S. Carpenter.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR and oat meal in bulk, hominy flakes, evaporated fruits, preserves, apple butter, oranges, bananas, broiling beef, at McKinney Bros'.

MR. JOHN BRIGHT has decided to sell out lock, stock and barrel Feb. 23d, but we hope he has no intention of leaving the land of his birth, even to go a short distance.

THE re-elected board of the First National Bank retained all the old officers—J. S. Hocker, president, J. J. McRoberts cashier and A. A. McKinney assistant cashier.

MR. A. J. EARP is the best and most reliable photographer that ever came among us. His work is first-class, his charges are reasonable and as he has come to stay, our people ought to patronize him when needing anything in his line. See his announcement in another column.

A LOUISVILLE member with the hope, no doubt, that Frankfort will come to time with a banquet and other inducements, has offered a bill to move the Capital to Louisville. It won't work, though. Frankfort is almost absolute in her tenure and we will be glad when she is entirely secure.

THE cold wave flag was flying again yesterday, with the promise of snow and a drop in the mercury of 20° by this morning. If this should be verified it will be impossible to travel at all by land, as the sleet was as bad yesterday almost as at any time since it came with us apparently to stay.

THE dress suit of Mr. John Sam Owsley, Jr., which was stolen from Mr. Ed Jones' buggy, was found in a branch on Mr. H. S. Withers' farm Friday, by Fields Salter, and brought to town by Mr. Withers. Joe Skinner, the first negro arrested, had been discharged, and Coleman Carpenter was jailed on suspicion of having committed the theft, but there was no proof to connect him with it and he too was discharged. The suit was stiff frozen and nearly ruined.

ABOUT as near to seeing the pearly beauties of the New Jerusalem as many, we fear, will ever come, was a few nights ago, when gazing on the sleet covered world of the light of a full moon. The whole face of nature was hid in the pearly covering and as the icicles danced in the merry moonlight, a picture was presented of such bewildering beauty that an artist would give his life to transfer it accurately to canvas. It was a scene long to be remembered and enjoyed by those who had warm clothing and pleasant firesides to go to after gazing on it.

SOME 15 years ago Mr. A. S. Myers had some trouble with one Ben Evans, of Garrard, and gave him a whack over the head with a cane. The corpulent gentleman had forgotten all about the affair, but it seems that Evans hadn't. Friday night the bad man from Bitter Creek came over seeking revenge and with his hand on his pistol asked Mr. Myers to feel the knot he made a number of years ago. Mr. M. refused to do so when Evans started to raise Cain generally and but for the presence of Bright Ferrill and others a serious trouble would have followed. Evans stated to several parties that he came over purposely to kill Mr. Myers and declared that he would do so whenever the opportunity offered itself. In the mean time Mr. Myers will watch out for his enemy and try and not be caught napping.

THE Pythian installation of officers Thursday night was both impressive and interesting. When the guests were invited into the hall from a well-warmed ante-room, into which they had been received, they saw the Lodge in working order, with J. S. Owsley, Jr., acting as Grand Chancellor, S. M. Owens as G. V. C., Thomas Hurley as G. P. C., E. C. Walton Grand Prelate, W. H. Wearen G. M. A., Max Manes, G. K. R. & S., and J. C. McClary G. M. of F. and G. M. of E. After a prayer by Knight W. E. Ellis, Mr. Owsley delivered a handsome welcome address and then the M. at A. was instructed to present Joe Severance, Jr., to be installed C. C. The charge was delivered by Mr. Owsley and the oath administered by Mr. Walton, and this was the order through the rest of the officers, with the exception of P. W. Green, who was kept away by the death of a relative: A. G. Huffman, V. C.; J. C. McClary, P.; J. S. Wells, M. of E.; I. M. Bruce, M. of F.; W. H. Wearen, G. K. R. & S. The C. C. appointed R. Zimmer I. G. and Max Manes O. G. and they too were duly installed. Mr. Severance recited the beautiful story of Damon and Pythias very effectively and at times during the programme music by the Stanford Orchestra, composed of Messrs. W. B. Penny, Joe F. Waters, T. D. Raney, W. N. Craig and Wm. Severance, was discoursed and was much complimented. The installation over, the guests, about 50 in number, were escorted ed to Zimmer's restaurant, where a banquet, which consisted of nearly everything that the heart could wish, was handsomely spread and which was discussed for an hour or more with avidity and relish. There was no wine, but it was not needed to increase the general good cheer that prevailed. A huge bank of flowers, a gift from J. S. Owsley, Jr., in which the shield of the order was interwoven, occupied the centre of the room, shedding a delightful fragrance and adding much to the brilliancy of the scene. From it each guest was furnished a boutonniere, the ladies in addition being presented with a fern leaf and other souvenirs. The young people then repaired to the Hall and for an hour or two enjoyed themselves in an informal and pleasant manner. The whole affair was elegant and the guests went away delighted with their reception and feeling a higher appreciation of the accomplishments and aims of the benevolent and brotherly order, which has done so much since its foundation, during the civil war, to restore and cement the sections that for four years waged so deadly a war against each other.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—The Record located Mr. Chas. Crites and Miss Mollie Eubanks incorrectly. The former is a Danville jeweler and Miss Mollie is the pretty blonde daughter of Mr. George Eubanks, of this county.

MISS MINNIE DEWALL, grand-daughter of Mrs. Betsy Nevins, of this place, will be married to-morrow at her step-father's residence, Mr. James Curtis, in Houston, Texas, to a gentleman of that city.
